

Abstract

A coated film is provided having a textured film with a top surface and a bottom surface, wherein at least one LAB coated area and at least one uncoated area are on the top surface of a textured film, and the appearance of the coated and uncoated areas on a textured film is visibly uniform and generally provides a 5 coated film that has a surface that has visually indiscernible areas, even when at least one portion of the films is coated with particulate filled LAB, and the remainder of the film is uncoated.